The following agreement concerns the use, reproduction, and distribution of digital copies of the Flying Mission Genealogy of the Carrier Sekani Peoples (hence forth known as the “Genealogy”), held in the custody of the Carrier Sekani Tribal Council (“CSTC”). The subsequent terms and conditions apply when a digital copy of the Genealogy (or portions thereof) are transferred to a First Nation (community or band), First Nation organization, or Aboriginal individual with a connection to the Carrier and Sekani (or Dakelh) territory (hence forth known as the “requestor”) from the CSTC.

By signing this agreement, _____ agrees to the following terms and conditions on behalf of their First Nation, organization, or self:

- The genealogy will be used for research and verification purposes only.
- The genealogy is to be used for non-commercial purposes. Any commercial use of the genealogy, including the distribution of copies for profit, is strictly prohibited.
- The requestor(s) may not redistribute, reproduce, or grant rights to others to access the genealogy except in the following instances:
 - In case of a First Nation receiving a digital copy of the genealogy, they may grant access and distribute the genealogy to community members for research and reference purposes. Any distribution outside of the First Nation must be facilitated through the Carrier Sekani Tribal Council.
 - In the case of litigation, land claims, or research which would facilitate government to government negotiation, treaty negotiation, or Aboriginal title rights, the requestor may reproduce copies for organizations or individuals working on their behalf for research and reference purposes.
- Any posting, exhibiting, linking, or otherwise distribution of the genealogy online is prohibited, except in the case of a secure online portal for requesting or accessing the genealogy by community or band members.
- The records will be used within all the terms and conditions outlined above, and will not diverge from the agreed upon usage without prior consent from the CSTC. Any additional use, reproduction, or distribution terms must be listed below:
